Resident Firefighter Recruitment

The Bolinas Fire Protection District is currently accepting applications for the position of Resident Firefighter.

Resident Firefighter

Working a minimum of one 24-hour shift weekly under direct supervision, provide supplemental staffing to paid staff. This is an opportunity to learn and perform fire suppression and rescue operations as well as assist with station and equipment maintenance; and to perform related duties as assigned.

Salary

Part time, non-benefited

Requirements

Minimum age – 18

Knowledge of basic fire suppression techniques. Any combination of training and experience that would provide the needed knowledge and skills is qualifying. EMT-B certification preferred.

Knowledge of good physical work methods. Ability to follow oral and written directions, do heavy physical work, exercise good judgment in hazardous situations, accept training, work safely with others, work compatibly with others, respond quickly to oral commands or signals in emergency situations.

Application Process

Applications are available at the District office or on the District website. Applications can be returned by mail or in person. All qualified applicants will be invited to an oral interview.

Equal Employment Opportunity Employer: The Bolinas Fire Protection District is committed to diversity and invites all qualified people to apply, including persons of color, women, and individuals with disabilities. Upon request, reasonable accommodations may be made for persons with disabilities and for religious reasons, where necessary. If you have questions regarding equal employment opportunities or the position announcement, please contact the District Administrative Office at (415) 868-1566.